Hello My Painting Friends,

I hope everyone has been able to work on painting projects during the holidays. Although it seems like I haven't painted much lately, this month I spent a long while cleaning paint brushes and reorganizing painting stuff. It's amazing how it can take over space. I was painting and varnishing chipped up brush handles and glued one funky ferrule on a favorite brush to keep it from spinning on me. This last half year for me has been one of taking stock of my stuff, fixing up flawed or broken items, de-snagging clothes, calming down pulls in woven blankets; the list is endless and my cat, Rocky, has done his best to contribute to it. Boring, yet calming, maybe even an energizing activity. Which reminds me to consider the news from SDP on their final vote on their merger of organizations. I actually yawned, old news really, no shock value at all. So while SDP news is boring, consider it calming, and maybe even energizing to get you going with our new painting club CBDP Inc.!!

The first annual Birthday Luncheon on January 7th was a fun and successful event! Thanks to Linda and all of her committee members for their work putting it all together. It's always exciting to see Sail Away projects and painters we haven't seen in a while, especially those who traveled a good way to join in this event. Thank you all for coming and contributing to our new club!

We had many good painting classes last fall and I'm looking forward to what Robin has planned for us this year. Thanks to Alice Dudley for teaching "Her Majesty" watercolor rose at the November meeting. On December 10th, Kathy Anthony taught the Happy Easter (or Spring) glass block. Thanks to Kathy for teaching and bringing Paige with you. Paige painted Hans Solo while we did our bunnies, see photos! Thank heavens Kathy sponged the frost paint on and base coated the rabbit for us or I'd still be painting on it! It really was a nice break from all the holiday push. Our next class will be after the February 11th meeting at the Linthicum Library. Kathy Anthony will be teaching Flip Flop Fiesta. On March 4th, Debbie Reeder will be teaching "Daisies and Dragonflies" after our club meeting. This class will be a great warm-up to Sail Away which begins March 9th. Please support our club and stay to paint after the meetings.

It's so exciting to see our painters in a new role getting our new club up and running, and to see Sail Away refloated with new co-chairs, committee, and venue. See you all on February 11th!

Paint Happy,
Judy

Membership Corner

For the next few newsletters I am going to interview a member of our chapter so that we can get to know each other even better. This month I'd like to introduce Joann Wheeler, co-chair of Sail Away.

Getting to Know You – Joann Wheeler

How did you become interested in Decorative painting?

Joann - Two of my co-workers were members of the Chesapeake Bay Decorative Painters. They both knew that I was a China painter. They told me about Sail Away, all of the classes that they had taken and invited me to join the chapter. I was a little reluctant because I knew nothing about acrylic painting. At the time Bev had her shop in Severna Park so I signed up for her beginner decorative painting class. I found I really enjoyed it. From there I took many, many classes at that shop and I joined the Chapter. I guess the rest is history.

How long have you been a member and are you a member of any other chapters?

Joann - Goodness, that is a good question. This is my second time around with the chapter. I belonged for a number of years, then took a break from decorative painting. I had hoped to rejoin and then Covid hit and the chapter was on zoom so I decided to wait until I could participate in person, so at Sail Away 2022 I rejoined. This is the only decorative painting group to which I belong.

What mediums do you work with?

Joann - Besides acrylic, I work in watercolor, china paints, pastel, alcohol inks and colored pencil. I also enjoy drawing in pencil.

What is your favorite?

Joann - My favorite is china painting, primarily because it's oil and it is an open medium so if I decide I don't like what I'm doing I can just wipe it away. It doesn't become permanent until it's fired in the kiln.

Do you have any other hobbies besides painting?

Joann - I love card making, felting and crocheting.

Thanks for sharing with us, Joann. I am so glad you decided to rejoin the club and thank you for all the work you are doing to make Sail Away a success.

Membership update: There was a flurry of new members that signed up at the birthday lunch. Looks like we have a total of 54 members. 47 were members of the former group in 2022. We have some new members and members who have been part of the group in the past and are now rejoining. Since CDBP, Inc is a new club, we are all considered new members this year. Welcome to everyone.

Programs and Seminars

Thank you to Alice Dudley for teaching "Her Majesty" in November and Kathy Anthony for teaching "Happy Easter" in December. I would also like to thank all of our teachers for their Club Project and Paint-In submissions.

Club Projects:

We have a fantastic line up of club projects for this year. Check out the Calendar of Events in this newsletter for our schedule of projects. The deadline to sign up for "Flip Flop Fiesta" is January 28th and "Daisies and Dragonfly" is February 25th. Please keep in mind the dates for April through December are tentative until I can schedule the library. Once scheduled I will send out the registration information with the date and location and request the Calendar of Events be updated on our website. Our newsletter will reflect the current info when published.

Remember to use your $10.00 voucher towards one of our club meeting projects. Also as a reminder, if you cancel your registration after the deadline date you will not receive a refund. The teacher will provide you with the pattern and any other embellishments included in the material fee.

Paint-Ins:

We have three paint-in projects for this year. One will be scheduled for the Spring, one for Summer and the other for the Fall. Pictures will be posted to our website sometime after February.

The projects are:

Four Season Welcome Gnome Sign

(taught and designed by our very own Jeni Bearce)

Hang Your Stocking with a matching ornament

(taught by Debbie Reeder, designed by Maxine Thomas)

Kindness

(taught by Michelle Pollhein, designed by Laure Paillex)

Mark Menendez Seminar: On hold.

Sail Away 2023

We are all so excited to be seeing everyone at Sail Away this year. There are a few things we want to remind you of before you arrive.

This year Sail Away will be held in a new location: the Holiday Inn Oceanfront at 6600 Coastal Hwy, Ocean City, MD. (Entrance to the hotel is on 67th street, the convention hall entrance is facing Coastal Hwy on the 66th street side)

- Room rates are $59 Thursday night, $119 on Friday and Saturday night and $59 on Sunday night and each room has 2 queen beds and an Eastern or Southern Ocean view. Check-in is 4 pm and check-out is 11 am.
- You must call 410-524-1600 to make your reservations. Do not make them online or you will not get the reduced rate. Be sure to reserve your rooms by February 21, 2023 and tell them that you are with Chesapeake Bay Decorative Painters to lock in these rates. After February 21 rates go up to their normal prices, so reserve now. You will be charged for one night when you make your reservation.
- All rooms have a stove, sink, Keurig machine, and an apartment sized refrigerator with freezer. Some dishes are available in the cabinets. Bring your own breakfast items or purchase breakfast in the restaurant downstairs.

Mason Jar Decorating Contest – Be sure to decorate a mason jar to “capture the light” to win a $25 gift certificate to a craft store. Bring them to the Thursday night Social or the registration table upstairs by Friday at noon. We’ll have them on display at the registration area near the classrooms over the weekend. Everyone will receive one voting ticket in their registration packets and voting will start at 8 AM on Saturday and will close at 4 pm. The winner will be determined by votes from attendees and will be announced at the Banquet on Saturday night. We can’t wait to see what you create!

IMPORTANT REMINDERS

- No outside food or drink may be consumed in the public areas of the hotel. You may bring your own food, but you must consume it in your room or off site. According to hotel policy, if anyone is found eating/drinking outside food/drink, we will be charged a $200 fine. Your attention to this requirement is greatly appreciated.
- Water will be provided in the classrooms for consumption, but you may bring your own beverage in an insulated cup. (They can’t tell what’s in it.)
- There are several eating establishments across the street from the hotel. Dunkin Donuts, Longboard Café, Sweet Frog, and Generals Kitchen. There are several more a short walking distance from the hotel. Please remember to eat the food in your room or at the offsite restaurant itself. Thank you.
- Photos – Photos will be taken throughout the weekend. If you do not want your picture to be taken, you must notify Jennifer (jenib@comcast.net) or Joann (joannywheeler@outlook.com).
- Thursday Night Social – 6 to 8 pm in the Wine Room across from the Touch of Italy restaurant in the lobby area. Registration packets will be available for you to pick up. Bring your decorated Mason Jars! If you didn’t order food on your registration form, the restaurant will be open and you can order there and bring it across the lobby to the social. The same goes for alcoholic beverages! We’ve got a surprise art activity for you! Judy and Joann are planning it, so it should be great fun.
- Auction donations – Be sure to bring your beautiful items! Drop off is from 5 – 6 pm upstairs in the banquet room.

If you have any questions, please email Joann Wheeler or Jen Bearce and we’ll be glad to help you. See you in March, fireflies!

CHESAPEAKE BAY DECORATIVE PAINTERS, INC.
CLUB MEETING AND BIRTHDAY LUNCHEON

January 7, 2023

Meeting Called to Order at: 11:56 am

Minutes: No additions or corrections.

President's Report: Judy

Welcome to our first annual birthday luncheon.

Excited about Sail Away coming up. Short meeting, installation, hand out brochure and eat.

Treasurer's Report: Linda Walls

Not doing Savings and Checking anymore, just one account.

Current Balance : $ 10,410.89

There was a question about rolling over the old Chapter money. As a new nonprofit, we were able to donate the Chapter funds to our Club.

Judy asked For a volunteer to audit the books for our old chapter and our new club. Jeni Bearce agreed to do this.

Linda has a huge deposit right now from Linda Miller, but that will be on February's statement. A few other entries are missing as well.

Linda will work on the 2 year end statements, one for the chapter and one for our new club. The IRS 990N form for the old chapter can be done as soon as the website is open. Judy and Linda will discuss later.

Membership: Paula

Our membership was at 37 before today, but Paula has collected 8 to 10 more today, so membership is up in the 40s. The $10 rebate for club meeting classes ends today. There are registration forms on the table. Dues went up, but the overall cost is less because we don't have to pay to belong to the National Organization anymore. Our costs have gone up to pay for our liability insurance and other legal fees. And we still need to donate to charities and the library because we are a non-profit. Update: Membership stands at 54 after the meeting.

There was an introduction of guests here today. Six guests were present.

Paula also mentioned that we need to get back to the habit of wearing our nametags to meetings again. If you need a nametag, let Paula know. If you have an old nametag, Paula can give you a new insert for it.

Sunshine: Linda Miller

Linda Brandt had a loss in the family. Linda sent a card out.

Please let Linda know if there is someone we should send a card to. Linda has handmade cards to send.

Deb Reeder talked to Lucy Jo who sends her love to us today.

Linda named and thanked her committee for the luncheon.

Programs: Robin

December Class: glass block taught by Kathy Anthony at the Linthicum Library. 6 people painted.

February 11, 2023 - Club Meeting: Kathy Anthony will teach "Flip Flop Fiesta!" at the Linthicum Library. This is a 5-hour class with prep needed before the class.

March 4 or 18th - Club Meeting: "Daisies & Dragonflies" with Debbie Reeder

April 8 - Club Meeting: "A Peaceful View" with Michelle P.

May 13 - Club Meeting: "Tulip Batik" with Alice Dudley

We have 3 paint-in projects for this year. Robin said we need a project for June and asked if members would like to learn the eggshell technique used in the luncheon favors. By a show of hands, members were interested in the egg shell class in June.

Newsletter: Barb

Next deadline is January 15, 2022.

Committee Reports:

Sail Away: JoAnn

Jeni, Judy, Paula and JoAnn went to the hotel to see the set-up. The hotel is doing renovations right now. Because of this, we are being upgraded to the conference center for no extra cost this year. The classrooms are nice. Everything is on the same floor. The social room is also nice for Thursday night. Anyone can come - with or without a food order. Each of the hotel bedrooms has a mini-kitchen, including a Keurig. Some even have a fireplace. They have nice views of the ocean, also. The hotel has an indoor pool and jacuzzi. There was a miscommunication about breakfast vouchers, though. We will not receive these as part of the room cost, as originally thought. But with a full kitchen in the rooms, Joann suggested can cook our breakfasts there instead.

Projects are viewable today. A total of 20 projects were submitted. The 6-hour classes that were not selected for Sail Away will be offered as paint-in projects, if teachers chose this option on their submission forms.

Registration begins today and everyone will receive their packet today.

Everything is in the works. The t-shirts will be light blue. Information is in the packet.

No outside food can be eaten in the open areas in the hotel, only in your rooms. There are plenty of restaurants nearby also. They will fine us if we bring outside food into the classrooms. If you buy the food from them, you can bring it, though. There will be drinking water in each classroom.

When you make your reservation, make sure you identify yourself as CDBP to get the discounted price. Prepaid tickets for the auction will be in your folders.

If you're donating to the auction, bring it to sail away.

Ways and Means: There are plenty of donations here today. If you take an item, place your donation money in the bag. There will also be a 50/50 raffle today... see JoAnn for tickets.

Memory Boxes: Erin

There are blank boxes here today to paint, as well as fabric. If each member paints 2 boxes each year, we will have a good supply.

Community Service: Carole Shuey

We will collect to donate to Lars in April.

Old Business:

Judy mentioned that it's important that we support other clubs. Judy is joining the Southern Maryland club.

John Triplett and Kathy Anthony are working on the website, getting that up and running. We also have a Facebook group that Kathy is monitoring. If you've asked to be a member and haven't been accepted, reach out to Kathy.

New Business:

Our 2023 Board members were sworn in as follows:
