Paint: "Believe" with Kathy Anthony

President's Letter:

Hello My Painting Friends,

It was wonderful seeing all the painters at the Birthday Luncheon on January 6th at The All American Steakhouse. We had fun despite the rain yammering on the roof, swore in our officers, voted on projects, and picked the lucky winner of Kathy Anthony's quilt. Thanks again to Kathy and Joann and the committee members for all their work on our behalf. Welcome Carolyn Troy and Erin Triplett to the board and again a big thank you to Robin and Barb for their years on the board and for helping us out during the transition. Barb will continue to do the newsletter for now, but will transition this to someone else by the end of this year so she can focus on teaching.

February's meeting featured Barb teaching her "Oak Leaves and Acorn" watercolor at the Crofton Library. Thanks to Barb for teaching her piece. Hope the students don't leave me wondering, bring some results to show at our March meeting.

Coming classes include Kathy Anthony teaching in March and Debbie Reeder teaching in April!

I am already excited for Sail Away. Read through your registration materials now and pick up supplies you'll need for classes and reserve a hotel room. Thank you to Kathy Anthony and her committee members for getting us ready!

Due to the new, busy library schedules, we will be meeting at various places, some new to our group. Please, check out the information in the newsletters and emails so you know where you are headed. Have a question about classes, call Paula. Also, please let us know if you have ideas for places we can meet and paint.

Below are photos of our summer and fall library displays. Thanks to Alice D. For organizing this!

I look forward to seeing you all at the March meeting and at Sail Away.

Paint happy,
Judy

Membership Corner:

Reminder: Please renew your membership as soon as possible! See the attached renewal form.

We currently have 47 members, and we would love to welcome new painters into our club! Please continue to spread the word and help bring more talented artists to our group, and anyone who might be interested in learning to paint. I know we are all excited to venture over to Ocean City for some fun time with painting, and good friends. Hoping we all get to relax and enjoy learning some new techniques, and possibly getting to know some new friends, and reconnect with those we haven't been able to visit with in awhile. I look forward to painting with you all!

Happy Painting,
Erin Triplett

As I take over as VP Projects, I am realizing how much talent we have within our group.

Thank you, Barb Hoage, for teaching the “Oak Leaves and Acorns” Watercolor class at the February meeting. I think we all learned something new and left encouraged to try to paint something every day.

Thanks also to all the teachers who submitted projects for our 2024 Club meetings and Paint Ins. The calendar is filled in. Of note, we are trying some new venues. Libraries are getting harder to reserve space. Sue Weber has offered to host us at the Long and Foster offices in Severna Park for our April meeting. Thank you Sue!! Thanks too to Robin Pollman for discovering that each of the police barracks in Anne Arundel County have community rooms for use by county residents. Our May meeting and June Paint in will be at the Western District Police station. Please note that our meeting time will return to 10:00 for venues other than the libraries.

2024 Upcoming Club Projects:

Kathy Anthony will be teaching her original design “Believe” at the Linthicum library on March 9.

Sign up Sheets for the April Christmas Tree Pillow, May Santa Gourd, June Movie Night, and the Spring Paint In are included in this newsletter. Please see each sheet for deadlines and locations. Please remember if you cancel your registration after the deadline date, you will not receive a refund.

Mark Menendez Seminar: Mark is not doing in person classes yet so he has refunded our deposit. I will be starting to work on getting an outside teacher to come and teach. If you have any ideas or suggestions for a national teacher or would like to help with selecting someone, please let me know.

CLUB MEETING MINUTES – February 10, 2024

Meeting called to order at 10:34 by Paula Taylor.

Meeting Minutes: the January minutes were accepted.

Presidents Report: Judy is out of town. Paula was acting President and presented a report from Judy. Welcome new Board Members – Erin Triplett, 2nd VP, and Carolyn Troy, Secretary. The Birthday Luncheon was a lot of fun, despite the rain on the roof. The food was good and painting friends are always good to see. Looking forward to more painting classes in 2024.

Treasurer's Report: We have a balance of $12,120.61. All the Birthday Luncheon bills have been paid. None of the Sail Away deposits are included in that amount. There may be some expenses from Sail Away. Carolyn Troy will audit the books for Linda.

Membership: 46 members + 1 new member = 47 total members. Donna Deter, new member, was in attendance. Welcome Donna.

Programs: There is a full calendar for classes after meetings. There are 3 paint-in projects. Today is the last day to sign up for Kathy Anthony's "Believe" class for March. Debbie Reeder will be teaching the Christmas Pillow in April. Registration is open for that class.

It is becoming increasingly difficult to schedule at the libraries. There will be new venues this year. We will be using the Police Barracks in Brooklyn, Odenton and Pasadena. Long & Foster (Severna Park) will host the April Meeting. We are looking at additional venues.

Alice Dudley made the suggestion that members write letters to Steuart Pittman, Anne Arundel County Executive, about the lack of meeting spaces for organizations. We are not the only organization having difficulties finding meeting space.

Today – Barb Hoage is teaching Oak Leaves and Acorns

March 9– Kathy Anthony will be teaching Believe (Linthicum Library)

April 13– Debbie Reeder will be teaching Christmas Pillow (Long & Foster)

May 11 – Diane Weih will be teaching Santa Gourd (Western Police Station)

Spring Paint-in “Spring Flowers”, taught by Barb Hoage, will be June 19 at the Western Police Barrack.

Mark Menendez will not be coming in 2024. If you have any suggestions for “big brush” teachers, please let Paula know. We may want to look at websites like OKC Palooza for some ideas of who we might want to contact.

The Southern Maryland club is hosting Paulette DeCesare via Zoom. We are invited to join them. Please contact Garnett Joy for more information.

Newsletter: Deadline 2/15. Please send any news or pictures to Barb Hoage

Committee Reports:

Sail Away: Sail Away begins March 14. 35 attendees have signed up. If you are going, you should have received your schedule. Those who provided a SASE should have received a hard copy schedule. If not, please contact Paula Taylor.

After the meeting, Barbara Boardman sent a note that she will be ordering colored pencils for her classes. If you need any, you can order them from Barbara.

Ways and Means: The raffle for the quilt raised $297. This amount will be used to pay for the additional room at Sail Away in March. Kathy Anthony generously donated the Quilt. Diane Weih won it. The donation table in 2023 raised $444.

Memory Boxes: Erin didn't deliver any last month. If you have any to paint, please paint them and get them back to her.

Community Service: For the spring Community Service we will collect for SPAM (Severna Park assistance) Barb will include the information in the Newsletter.

Items left over on the donation table (other than books) are donated to the Arundel Lodge for their art therapy program. Any books can be donated to the library for their resale for charity.

Publicity: Alice Dudley will be setting up a display in the Crofton Library.

Birthday Luncheon: 53 reservations. Despite the bad weather, 39 people + 8 guests attended. The club contributed some funds towards the event. The restaurant was good, but with the donation table and the projects displayed, it was a little tight and difficult to move around.

We need a chair for next year's event. If you are willing to do this, let Judy know.

Old Business: None

New Business: None

Show & Tell: Jeni showed a beautiful colored pencil deer from a class she took with Mark Menendez.

Meeting was adjourned at 11:02.

Next Meeting: March 9 at the Linthicum Library

Family and friends,

Another year has come and gone. Big changes for the Myrick and Weagley clan. Last year, the farthest thing from our minds is that we would be moved to a new house this year, and to a different state yet. After 52 years on Hooper Road, we have now moved to Pennsylvania to the farm.....Stoners Farm that is. It is an adult community in Littlestown, PA. We absolutely love it here. Mom is with us and that is good, we are all under one roof. It was a big change for her, but I think she as adjusted nicely. Jack will not have all the outside work to do, and I have a full basement to use as a craft area!!!!!! We are blessed. Our new address is 126 Stoners Circle

Littlestown, PA 17340

Please stop in to visit with us sometime, we would love to see you. Hugs, Jack, Kathy and Mom
