Paint: "Gourd Santa" with Diane Weih

President's Letter:

Hello My Painting Friends,

I hope you all enjoyed Sail Away 2024 as much as I did! Getting away is always nice but to have an extended time to hang out with and paint with our club members is wonderful. Many thanks to our Sail Away chair, Kathy Anthony, and registration guru, Paula Taylor, for planning and pulling off another successful Sail Away! Thank you to all the teachers, committee members, and attendees. With all of you participating, it was a fun and interesting time. Even my cat, Rocky, got into the pre-planning painting. Usually he just adds fur to my projects but here he dabbled a little in 3 paint colors and created this work on the table and his bed which you can see in the attached photo. He was pleased with his work and is so "Who, Me?" in the second shot. Yes, I let the art stay on his bed!

March's meeting featured Kathy Anthony teaching "Believe" at the Linthicum Library, thanks Kathy! April's meeting was held at Long & Foster's office in Severna Park thanks to Sue Weber. After waiting a few years for an opening, Debbie Reeder taught her "Christmas Pillow." I know we all enjoyed having Debbie teach again, thanks Deb!

Coming classes include Diane Weih teaching her "Gourd Santa" on May 11th at Western District Police Station after our meeting, and on June 8th Jennie Bearce will teach her "Family Movie Night" at Northern District Police Station after our meeting. Our Spring Paint In will feature Barb Hoage teaching her "Flowers" design on June 19th. Mark your calendars for all of the events listed in this newsletter so you'll be able to join in the painting.

Due to the new, busy library schedules, we've been meeting at new places. Please give us feedback on the new locations, as well as ideas for places we can meet and paint.

Paint happy,

Judy

Membership Corner:

Hello Chesapeake Bay Decorative Painters! Oh what fun we had in Ocean City at Sail Away! It was a wonderful painting adventure, and great times with some new and old friends. I definitely got to relax and enjoy learning some new techniques, and truly delighted in getting to know some of our new and prospective members, and reconnect with those whom I haven't seen in quite awhile.

Also, I would like to remind everyone that Diane Weih is teaching the Santa Gourd class on May 11th, and she has handed out some of the gourds to those who will be attending, so that they can basecoat the gourd with the color of their choosing. If you have signed up for the class, or would like to, Diane would be happy to basecoat your gourd for you (so it is ready for class), just let her know. She can be reached at: wdrpd@zoominternet.net.

Please also keep talking to your friends about our amazing club, and help spread the word! We would love to welcome new people with a love for painting, and of course help others discover the fun and enjoyment of the wonderful world of decorative painting! Once again it was really great to see everyone at Sail Away, and I hope that those who were unable to come this year, please know you were missed, and we hope to see you next year! In the mean time, we hope we can all join in in our club meetings, paint-ins, and fun upcoming projects!

Happy Springtime Painting,
Erin Triplett
Vice President, Membership

Thanks to Kathy Anthony for teaching her project “Believe” in March. It was a small class, so we had plenty of time for laughter and had a lot of fun. Thanks too to Deb Reeder for teaching her Christmas pillow class. We had a long wait, but I am sure those who attended thought it was worth it.

Sail Away 2025

We all had a lot of fun at Sail Away this year, and we learned a lot. It is always so much fun to get together with friends to paint. I would like to thank all who taught our classes and those who volunteered to make SA24 such a success. From tie-dye crab shells, gasps of shock as I began teaching class, auction donations, to the wave when someone won an auction item it was such an enjoyable experience.

Sail Away 2025 will be held March 20-24, 2025 at the Holiday Inn Oceanside in Ocean City, MD. We won't be there for St. Patrick's Day weekend next year.

To prepare for SA25, I am asking all teachers to begin thinking on which projects you want to be teaching. Paula Taylor has already agreed to do Registration for us again next year and Joann Wheeler has agreed to do Project Selection. Please think about which capacity you would like to serve in next year to make SA25 a success. Below is a list of committees that need volunteers:

Name Tags	Brown Bag Auction	Publicity
Centerpieces	Folders	Food/Catering
Favors	Entertainment/Slide Show	T-Shirts
Evaluations	Suggestion Box	Photo Booth
Folders	Logo Design	Room Set-Up

Thanks to everyone for your encouragement and support,

Kathy

CLUB MEETING MINUTES – March 9, 2024

Judy called the meeting to order at 10:40

Meeting Minutes: accepted as recorded

Presidents Report: Judy is very happy that we have projects to cover the meetings this year. We have a talented group, and being able to paint together is what will keep our Club going. Thanks to those who are teaching for their efforts.

It's been very difficult to get space to meet and paint together, so we're trying some new things this year. Thanks to Robin Pohlman for the idea of using Police Stations. We're hoping that works well for us. Our next meeting is at Long & Foster in Severna Park. Remember, we are there for their "Craft Day"

Treasurer's Report: Checking account balance is $11,768.28. Sail Away hasn't been paid for, and all the checks haven't been deposited yet. We should be close to breaking even with Sail Away, so the Treasury should remain about the same.

Carolyn Troy audited the books for last year. Everything is in order. Carolyn told the group that we're in good hands with Linda as our Treasurer.

Membership: Erin Triplett reported membership as 47. No recent changes.

Programs: Paula reported that we are all set for the year.

Kathy Anthony is teaching "Believe" today

Debbie Reeder had several pieces to show that she's done with Laurie Speltz and Lisbeth Stull subscription programs. She also recommends Tracy Moreau's videos on YouTube and her Saturday morning Facebook Live classes.

Next Meeting:

541-B Baltimore Annapolis Blvd, Severna Park, Md.

Committee Reports:

Sail Away: Even though Sail Away is not a fund raiser for us, thanks to the Quilt Raffle, donation table and Auction receipts we made a profit of $129.68. Thanks to all who contributed to these Kathy stated that Sail Away this year was a lot of fun. Think about what you would like to teach next year and get ready. Kathy is not willing at this point to say that she can be the Chairperson next year. If you'd like to do that, let Judy know. We will also need committee chairs. Paula has stated that she will do the registration again. Joann will do the Selection.

If you haven't done your evaluation yet, please send that to Paula. They really are used to make decisions for the next year.

Ways and Means: Joann asked for ideas for fundraising this year. Last year at the Birthday Luncheon we raffled the Quilt for Sail Away. If no other ideas, we will probably do another 50/50 raffle.

Memory Boxes: Erin will take 10 boxes to Howard County Hospital this week. We have ordered more rectangular boxes. If you have any boxes, please get them back to Erin. She is expecting more calls. She will have boxes at the next meeting to hand out.

Community Services: The next collection will be for SPAN – (Serving People Across Neighborhoods) in Severna Park at the May meeting. Information will be in the next Newsletter.

Publicity: Alice will be setting up a display in October at the Crofton Library. She needs a good copy of the new logo for the display.

Birthday Luncheon: The date will be January 11, 2025. Robin Benjes will be organizing an ornament exchange to take place at the luncheon. We still need a location and a Chair person

Old Business

The website is up to date.

New Business:

Plans for a National Teacher are open. If you have any ideas, let Paula or Judy know. Because finding space to have seminars has become so difficult, the Board is considering doing a Zoom seminar or Zoom + in person seminar. Garnett Joy has done this several times for the Southern Maryland Club and is willing help with setting this up.

A question was raised about clothing with our logo. Erin can check out getting some other items the logo. Or perhaps she could get logo patches to put on clothes.

Jeni Bearce has taken some culinary classes at a local college. She has been invited to be a part of the team designing a gingerbread house for a historic hotel in DC. Congratulations Jeni!

Meeting was adjourned at 11:25.

Next Meeting: May 11
